Plumber's Letter of Intent Notice

As of November 30, 2007, the City of Braidwood requires all Plumbing Contractors to present a Letter of Intent with any and all Plumbing Permit Applications per Illinois State Code – 225 ILCS 320/37.

Any and all plumbing must be done by a licensed Plumbing contractor, unless it is done by the homeowner. If the Homeowner does do the plumbing, they must also present a notarized Letter of Intent.

The Plumber's Letter of Intent shall be written on the licensed Plumber of Record's business stationary and shall include the license holder's signature. If the license holder is incorporated, the license holder's corporate seal must be included. All letters must be notarized.
