Illinois Roofing Contractor's

Must Be Licensed

It's The Law!!!

Please note that per Section 9 of the Illinois Roofing Industry Licensing Act (225 ILCS 335/9) from Chapter 111, par. 7509, licensing requirements are as follows:

- It is unlawful for any person to engage in the business or act in the capacity of or hold himself or herself out in any manner as a Roofing Contractor without having been duly licensed under the provisions of this Act.
- Any person who is found to have violated any provision of this Act is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor. On conviction of a second or subsequent offense the violator is guilty of a Class 4 felony. Each day of violation constitutes a separate offense.
- In legislation pass by both House and Senate on May 27th, 2009, any Subcontractor knowingly submitting a Building Permit application with a Roofing License number that is NOT that of the subcontractor for which the General Contractor has requested the permit (i.e. Identity Theft), they will be Subject to a criminal penalty.
